

Quality Policy

Struthers-Dunn is committed to providing the highest quality products and services that meet or exceed Customer Requirements in the Relays and Controls market, as well as complying with all applicable Industry Regulations and requirements. Customer satisfaction is achieved by managing a strong Quality Management System and continually improving our internal processes.